

RHAPSODY '23

Rangoli Competition

Rules & Regulations

- Participants are required to bring their own materials such as coloured powders, rice flour, petals, and other decorative elements.
- Design themes should be in good taste and respectful of cultural sensitivities.
- Participants will be provided with designated spaces for their rangoli creations.
- To add an element of challenge and excitement, participants will have a specified time limit to complete their rangoli designs. This will test their ability to think on their feet and create stunning patterns within the given time frame.
- Participants are required to physically come to IISc to create their rangoli within the given time frame.

RHAPSODY '23

Rangoli Competition

Judgement Criteria

- Uniqueness of design: How innovative and fresh is the concept and design of the rangoli?
- Intricacy: How detailed and intricate are the patterns, motifs, and elements within the rangoli?
- Colour selection: How well are the colours chosen and balanced in the rangoli?
- Colour harmony: Do the colours complement each other and enhance the overall visual appeal?
- Relevance to theme: How effectively does the rangoli reflect the given theme or concept of the competition?
- Overall visual appeal: Does the rangoli catch the eye and make a strong first impression?