

RHAPSODY 2023

Dive into creativity and make a splash at InkSplash, Rhapsody's sketch competition! Just like its name, InkSplash lets your imagination flow onto the canvas. Join us in celebrating visual storytelling – where every stroke is an inspiration!

Participant Expectations:

Calling all aspiring artists and creative minds! Whether you're a seasoned sketcher or just starting your artistic journey, we invite you to be a part of this expressive celebration. This competition values creativity, technique, and imagination.

Rules and Regulations:

1. Artwork Specifications:

- Participants must create their sketches using traditional media (pencil, charcoal, ink, etc.).
- Artworks must be submitted on A4-sized paper to maintain uniformity. (A4 sized paper will be provided at the venue)
- Each participant can submit only one sketch.

2. Theme:

- There is no specific theme for this competition. Participants are free to choose any subject matter that inspires them.

3. Submission Guidelines:

- Participants are required to physically come to IISc to create their sketches within the given time frame.
- Once the sketching session is concluded, participants must submit their completed sketches to the event organizers.
- Each artwork must be labelled on the back with the participant's name, contact details, and title of the sketch.

4. Judging Criteria:

- Creativity: How unique and innovative is the concept of the sketch?
- Technique: The skill displayed in the execution of the artwork.
- Composition: How well the elements are arranged within the composition.
- Overall Impact: The emotional resonance and impression left by the artwork.
- The decision of the judges will be final and cannot be challenged.

5. Code of Conduct:

- Participants are expected to maintain a respectful and positive attitude towards fellow participants and organizers.
- Any form of disruptive or disrespectful behaviour will result in immediate disqualification.
- Artworks will be handled carefully, but participants are advised not to submit fragile or easily damaged pieces.

6. Disqualification Criteria:

- Use of offensive or inappropriate content in the artwork.
- We know you'll be rocking the event, but let's make sure it's a smooth ride for everyone. Just a gentle reminder to keep things respectful and within the lines of the rules!
